

Identify Your Desired Job / Clarify Your Target

Before making a career change assess your motivations, intentions, and reason(s). Start by answering these 10 questions.

These questions can help you clarify your job objective

What specific job titles are you targeting?
(Be specific regarding level, functional role, and industry)

How realistic is that goal?
(Do you have the skills, education, and experience to qualify you for the role?)

Can you identify 1-3 job postings for the type of position you're interested in?

If you had all the money you needed – and you didn't need to work – what would you do?

In your performance reviews, in what areas did you receive the highest scores or the most positive feedback?
